

BRITISH CROWN GREEN BOWLING ASSOCIATION

CHLOE CROWNED LADIES CHAMPION

CHLOE HIRST (Yorkshire) denied Nicola Boulton a second successive BCG Ladies Senior Individual Merit title with a thrilling 21-20 final victory, to be crowned a worthy 2022 champion.

Played in the soaring heat at the excellent Brighthouse Sports Club in her native Yorkshire, Chloe came through six rounds of competition unscathed and was presented with the trophy by a proud Ladies President, Sheila Whiteley.

Chloe made her intentions known from the off, opening with a resounding 21-5 success over Anita Richardson (Merseyside) on Green 1 but had to dig deep in her second round match with Elaine Jones on Green 2. With Elaine making the better start with leads of 13-7 and 18-11, Chloe got a hold of the jack with a welcome double and then ran out to game. Back on Green 1, she was again in tremendous form to book her place in the quarter-finals with a 21-6 defeat over Sue Gawne (Isle of Man).

Nicola Boulton (Mid Cheshire), the winner in 2019, restricted her first three opponents to just 24 chalks between them. She began on Green 2 with a convincing 21-9 victory over Lynsey Gorman (Merseyside), switched to Green 1 where she inflicted the same score on Jane Cooper (Staffordshire) and then back on Green 2 she booked her place in the last eight with 21-6 defeat over Clair Russell (North Lancs & Fylde).

The last eight were all played on Green 1 with both finalists having tough games. Chloe once again had to dig deep to run out on Catherine Lockwood (North Lancs & Fylde) coming from 20-16 down while Nicola, having trailed 9 nil to Vikki Wilson (South Staffordshire), progressed to the penultimate stage with a 21-18 success. And it was a similar story in her semi-final match with Louise Ollerton (Greater Manchester). Louise had eight on the card before Nicola could get going, eventually winning 21-19. Meanwhile, Chloe was always in control of her match with Shannon Kernick (Warwick & Worcester) with leads of 8-0, 13-4 and 15-9. Shannon fought back to get within two of Chloe at 14-16 but could not maintain her momentum and suffered a 21-14 defeat.

The final was a tremendous affair with nothing separating the ladies in the early exchanges. From 11 across, Chloe pulled away to lead 14-11 and 19-15 only to see Nicola use all her experience to require one chalk for the game at 20-19. Chloe took advantage of a poor lead from Nicola and when she was unable to improve with her second bowl Chloe sent her final bowl to secure victory.

MERIT FINALLY ARRIVES IN CUMBRIA

After a two-year delay, the BCGBA Senior Individual Merit finally makes its way to Hawcoat Park Sports Club, Cumbria, on Saturday 30th July.

Sixty-four players from each of the sixteen BCGBA counties will be represented, based on the number of entries each county had in their 2019 merits.

Cumbria will have five representatives with local interest coming from Steve Greenway who plays the Lancashire champion, Billy Speed, in his opening game. Matthew Simpson takes on Ian Howell (Cheshire), Martin Barrow plays Kevin Boon (Potteries & District), Dan Varcoe faces Merseyside's George Curran and the Cumbria Merit winner, Ian France, plays one of the four former winners in the field, Noel Burrows (Cheshire), winner in 1976 and 2010.

DEFIBRILLATOR OFFER

DEFIB STORE has worked with manufacturers to put together a heavily discounted rate for defibrillators that would include the defibrillator and its cabinet, together with a personalised graphics package reflecting the club's

The 2014 champion, Ashley Daykin (Yorkshire), is paired with the Merseyside Merit winner, Josh Bunting, the 2015 champion, Tom Vickers (Cheshire), plays Adam Hartley (Derbyshire), while the 2009 champion, Callum Wraight (Shropshire), is up against Ben Percival (North Midlands).

Admission remains at £10 per person but this year there will be no stand facility available. Spectators will be permitted to bring their own seating to the venue. All black bench seating will be prioritised for 'Disabled and Seniors', other seating will be available on a first come basis.

The full draw can be found on page 11 with directions/parking details on Page 12. The BCGBA website will have live scores throughout the day.

If you are unable to get to Hawcoat Park a live stream will be available from 1pm. This will be a pay-per-view service at a cost of £4.99. To watch the live stream, and on-demand for the next seven days, click on JOYMO for further details.

REFEREES RAISE MONEY FOR THEIR CHARITY

This year, the BCG Referee's Society held its annual Patron's Day charity event at Heaton Park, Greater Manchester. The day raised more than £100 for the Society's Charity Fund with the final total expected to be over £200.

Played for the first time in three years with Covid having caused the cancellation of the 2020 and 2021 events, twelve referees from several counties met in a round-robin competition with the four group winners progressing to the semi-finals.

Phil Scott (Shropshire), the 2019 runner-up, defeated the six-time winner DT Evans (Wales), in the final, 21-16. Losing semi-finalists were Keith Andrews (Lancashire) and David Williams (Greater Manchester).

David Lamb, as Patron of the Referees Society, presented Phil with the Terry Nicholls Trophy.

MEN'S COUNTY CHAMPIONSHIP REACHES PENULTIMATE STAGE

Lancashire, Shropshire, Warwick & Worcester and Yorkshire will do battle on Sunday 7th August in the semi-finals of the 2022 BCGBA Endsleigh Senior County Championship, vying for a place in the September final and the chance to lift the coveted Crosfield Cup.

Warwick & Worcester secured their semi-final place with a 119 chalk decimation of Staffordshire in their final Section 1 match, topping the group with maximum points.

Arch-rivals, Yorkshire, who they lost out to in last year's County Championship Knockout Trophy final, stand in their way of a place in the final after their victory over Greater Manchester in Section 2. Through their superior aggregate, the White Rose County were almost guaranteed a semi-final spot regardless of the outcome of their final match but Greater Manchester matched them all the way, just missing out on victory by four chalks overall.

Shropshire came through Section 3 with an unblemished record, closing with a resounding 80 chalk victory over Cumbria. They now play Lancashire who qualified for the semi-finals without playing. They were in the three-team Section 4 and were hoping Wales wouldn't win their final fixture with North Midlands by 18 chalks or more. As it was, North Midlands won by 49 chalks leaving all three teams level on two points each. Lancashire's superior aggregate saw them through.

Teams for the semi-finals can now be viewed via the BCGBA website.

SENIOR SUPPLEMENTARY COUNTY CHAMPIONSHIP IS BACK

Counties finishing in second and third in Sections 1, 2 and 3 will, together with the Isle of Man and the county finishing in second position of Section 4, play for the 2022 BCGBA Supplementary County Championship. Two groups of four teams each play on a round-robin basis with the two group winners contesting the final.

This year's finals will be played in North Lancs & Fylde at Fox Lane Sports & Social Club (Fox Lane, Leyland PR25 1HB) on Sunday 7th August, commencing at 10am. Live scores will be available throughout the day via the BCGBA website.

2023 BCGBA CALENDAR OF EVENTS

The 2023 BCGBA Calendar of events has been released, which follow the same pattern of dates as in previous seasons. However, from next year all finals must be played within the same year as the competition. Venues will be advised once they are known.

As a result of this change, the BCGBA World Club Championship, BCGBA Ladies Club Championship and BCGBA Ladies County Average Winners Classic will move towards the end of the season rather than their early season starts. To avoid clubs/players missing out on these competitions from their success in 2022, additional competitions will run during the 2023 calendar.

AMBER WARNING DELAYS LADIES COUNTY CHAMPIONSHIP DECIDERS

Following a number of concerns raised by counties following the Amber Warning issued for Extreme Heat on Sunday 17th July, the decision was taken to allow counties to postpone their matches as they had a duty of care to their bowlers, some of whom are advanced in age.

Out of the nine matches scheduled to play, four took place which has resulted in three teams confirming their place in the semi-finals.

Wales have booked their place in the last four following a narrow four-chalk victory over Greater Manchester in Section 1 but must wait for Section 2 to be decided.

Yorkshire are in prime position as their plus aggregate of 338 and two point advantage must surely see them through.

The other semi-final will be between Shropshire and defending champions, Warwick & Worcester. Both sides won comfortably in their final round of matches, Shropshire by 91 over North Derbyshire in Section 3 while Warwick & Worcester defeated North Warwickshire in Section 4 by 66.

Following a rule change at the 2019 Annual Meeting, counties finishing second in Sections 1 to 4 will contest the Mavis Dearden Supplementary County Championship semi-finals. North Midlands (Section 3) will play North Warwickshire (Section 4) but the other semi-finalists won't be known until the outstanding matches have been played.

You can view all the scores at bcgba.org.uk.

CLEE & GAUT AIMING FOR A HAT-TRICK IN LADIES PAIRS

The BCG Ladies Dorothy Pearce Memorial Pairs makes its welcome return on Saturday 13th August following the cancellation of the 2020 and 2021 competitions. Fox Lane Sports & Social Club (Fox Lane, Leyland PR25 1HB) will host this year's competition with play getting underway at 10am.

Shropshire's two-time champions, Helen Clee & Angela Gaut (2000, 2004), will be out for a hat-trick of titles but first must overcome the challenge of Eileen Aindow & Susan Pugh (Dudley & District).

1	Linda Gledhill & Lorraine Hirst (Yorkshire)	v	2	Donna Bennett & Gaynor Smith (North Shropshire)
3	Louise Cotton & Sarah Weaver (Shropshire)	v	4	Pat McGurk & Trish Russell (Lancashire)

LEVELLING UP

The BCGBA Management Committee has agreed to the next steps in the merger with the BCG Ladies Association by equalising some of our competition prize money. From this season, both the men and the ladies will receive the same prize money and structure for their Senior Individual Merits and Champion of Champions competitions.

JUNIOR TITLES DECIDED

As expected, Yorkshire claimed a sixth consecutive BCGBA Junior County Championship title as they finished off their season with a resounding 140 chalk victory over Staffordshire. Who finished runners-up was dependent on the outcome of the Shropshire versus Wales fixture with both sides level on points going into this final fixture though Wales had a far superior aggregate difference.

In Shropshire, at St Georges BC, Jess Lacey's 21-8 card ensured Wales came away with a narrow 7 chalk victory but a 14 chalk loss at Caernarfon BC would see Shropshire secure the runners-up spot with seven chalks to spare. Wayd Pawlowski and Camilla Parsonage both handing in 21-4 cards for the Salopians.

In the BCGBA Junior Six-A-Side Team Championship, Warwick & Worcester (Pictured) and Cheshire were the winners of their respective group finals played at Heaton Park and St Mary's Park in Greater Manchester.

Group A was played at Heaton Park where the top two teams from the four groups played in May were drawn into two further Sections with the section winners playing off. Warwick & Worcester 'A' proved too strong for South Yorkshire, winning by 23 chalks overall in the final.

Group B was played at St Mary's Park where the top two/three teams from the May fixtures were again drawn into two further sections. In a similar scenario, Cheshire 'A' ran out winners by 25 chalks against North Midlands 'B'.

CHANGE OF VENUES FOR JUNIOR MERIT / 18-25 OPEN CHAMPIONSHIP

Counties have until Sunday 31st July to submit their entries for the 2022 BCGBA Junior Individual Merit and for the new competition specifically for the 18 to 25-year age group.

This year's Junior Merit will now be played at Ashton Cricket Club (Rayner Lane, off Lord Sheldon Way, Ashton-under-Lyne OL7 0FU) as the original venue of Royton Cricket, Bowling & Tennis is unable to host the event. Each of the sixteen counties will have two representatives in the 32-strong line-up on Saturday 20th August. The full draw should be available on the BCGBA website from Wednesday 3rd August.

The inaugural 18-25 Open Championship was scheduled for Heaton Park on Sunday 14th August but as they are now not able to host the competition, play will move to Windle Bowling Club (Hard Lane, St Helens WA10 6JT). Each of the sixteen counties will have four representatives in the 64-strong line-up and the full draw should be available on the BCGBA website from Wednesday 3rd August.

CHANGE OF DEPUTY PRESIDENT

BCGBA Deputy President, David Williams, has reluctantly had to relinquish his position with immediate effect.

Greater Manchester County has nominated Martin Goddard, pictured (right) with the BCGBA President, Ken Howarth, as their successor to David. In his first duty, Martin attended the Jack & Jean Isherwood Veterans Championship at Prees and aims to be at our remaining competitions in 2022.

David will continue in his role as British Crown Green Referees Society Secretary for the foreseeable future and is thanked for his time as Deputy President, which began in January 2020.

PROCTOR IS 'VETS' CHAMPION

Cheshire's Andy Proctor was the worthy winner of the 2022 BCGBA Jack & Jean Isherwood Veterans Championship, sponsored by The Grocott Family Charitable Trust, following a 21-14 final victory over Mark Melvin (British Parks) at Prees Cricket & Recreation Club, Shropshire.

Two former winners, Gerald Merry (2017) and the defending champion, Keith Pessall, winner in 2021, had made it through to finals day.

Pessall (Shropshire) bowed out in the first round, 21-20 to North Lancs & Fylde's Trevor Bibby while Merry (Cheshire) lost out to Melvin in the semi-finals, 21-16

Proctor's day started with a 21-8 opening victory over John Bonatti (Wales) and followed that with a 21-12 success at the expense of Paul Walton (Derbyshire). His quarter-final encounter with Robert Wiltshire (South Yorkshire) saw him get over the line with four chinks to spare (21-17) and was pushed even harder by Warwick & Worcester's Ronnie Regan in his semi-final, winning a close game 21-18.

Meanwhile, Mark Melvin had a tougher route on his way to the final. He started with a First Round success over Mark

Thomas (Shropshire), 21-16, then defeated Lancashire's Duncan Watkins 21-14. Two 21-16 victories saw him progress to the final with John Mountford (Potteries & District) losing out in the quarter-finals and former winner, Gerald Merry, in the semi-finals.

Andy's victory has earned him a place in the BCGBA Champion of Champions and BCGBA President, Ken Howarth presented him with his prize money and trophy.

VETERANS COUNTY CHAMPIONSHIP REACHES ITS FINAL STAGE

Qualifying is complete in the 2022 BCGBA Veterans County Championship with the four regional qualifiers now known after a long day bowling on fast tricky greens in hot conditions.

Merseyside came through Region 1 at Bamber Bridge Catholic Club (North Lancs & Fylde) with their 100% record intact following victories over Lancashire (4), Cumbria (3) and hosts North Lancs & Fylde (21). They will play North Derbyshire Parks in their opening match on finals day after they topped Region 2 as hosts on Staveley King George V BC. They were tied on points with South Yorkshire but their better aggregate saw them through.

Defending champions, Potteries & District, were drawn in Region 3 at Esclusham BC, Wales, and faced two former winners, hosts Wales, and Cheshire, in the defence of their title. They dominated their round-robin matches from the off, starting with a 33 chink victory over Greater Manchester and ending the hopes of the former winners, Cheshire (9) and Wales (36), from progressing to another finals day. Their first opponents on finals day will be Shropshire who were rarely troubled in their three matches at West Bromwich Football Supporters Club, hosted by Warwick & Worcester, securing victories over Staffordshire (28), Warwick & Worcester (27) and North Midlands (15).

The final four counties will now play again on a round-robin basis to determine the 2022 champion at Owley Wood Recreation Club (Barrymore Road, Weaverham, Northwich CW8 3LS). The finals take place on Thursday 4th August, 10am, and you will be able to follow the live scores via the BCGBA website.
